and unfortunately what it comes down to is a town the size of Dubbo, which is 45 to 50,000 people, there is always going to be those people in the community with that as a drug of choice carnations during Monday's proceedings in the Lords, during which a series of minor amendments - including